

CHAOS REIGNS IN GERMANY MILLIONS FACE STARVATION IF ALLIES DO NOT COME TO THEIR AID MUTINOUS NAVY MAY FIGHT

SIGNING OF ARMISTICE AND ITALIAN SMASHING OF THE AUSTRIANS ARE CELEBRATED

Thousands of People in the Streets Watch Parade in Which Hundreds of Others March; Downtown Alive With Visitors and Residents; All Business, Even Banking, Suspended.

IRE-WORKS, FAYETTE FIELD, ENDS OBSERVANCE

Assured by The Courier, through its Associated Press service, that the armistice drawn up by the Allies had been signed by the Germans and that peace would be the ultimate outcome, the people of Connellsville and surrounding districts held a monster celebration last night, exceeding anything that has been attempted on three other occasions when wild enthusiasm was stirred by reports from France, some of which were true and some not.

The Italians of the city had previously arranged to celebrate the victory of the soldiers of Italy over Austria. When the news arrived that the armistice had been signed, the Italian celebration was combined with the one planned by the merchants yesterday morning. Hundreds of Italians had come here from points all over Fayette and Westmoreland counties, adding to the numbers of the throng in the streets.

Plays could be seen everywhere. A mobile delegation was also in the parks and shouts of joy filled the air. The Boy Scouts also occupied a prominent place in the parade. There were 71 automobiles and trucks in the line of parade. Two wagons brought up the rear. The parade covered the principal downtown streets and went to the West Side. It disbanded at Fayette Field where there was speech making and fireworks.

After the parade had been disbanded, the streets in the business section were again thronged. The crowd did not begin to thin out until 12 o'clock and some of the celebrators remained on the streets until midnight. A shower of paper clippings and streamers fell on the parade as it marched by the high Second National Bank building. Handfuls of the clippings and streamers were thrown from the windows and floated to the streets below.

As requested by Mayor Duggan, there was no ringing of bells or blowing of whistles on account of the sickness which prevails in the city. The noise, for the most part, was confined to the downtown streets and did not bother those in the residential section.

"JOE" HOOD WOUNDED BY SHRAPNEL IN GOING OVER TOP

Letter to Father Proves Untrue Report Here That He Had Been Fatally Hurt.

Charles F. Hood received a letter this morning which proves untrue the report circulated yesterday that his son, Joseph, better known as "Joe", was fatally wounded. His condition is not at all serious, says a letter written by Captain A. Balz of Uniontown, the surgeon under whose care he is. The letter reads:

"Just a few lines to you from the front at the request of your son, Joe. Joe was wounded while going over the top and was brought to me for treatment. I was glad to have the opportunity of caring for a home boy and rest assured he will be made as comfortable as possible and will have every care necessary to bring about an early recovery. His wounds, though painful, are not serious and he will be returned to you in perfect health with nothing more than a few marks from shrapnel fire from Boche guns.

"Allow me to congratulate you on having such a brave son. I admire him for his nerve and love him for his devotion to country and duty. I saw him shortly after he was wounded, as we were located back of the front line, and every precaution was taken to guard against infection and all other unpleasant sequelae of shell fire. You may trust me to look after your son's interests and believe me when I say he is not in a serious condition."

"I had Colonel Edie of Connellsville see Joe with me and your son is very cheerful since he knows he is with friends."

The letter was written October 11. Family Sorely Stricken. Eight children of Mr. and Mrs. Page of Morgan are ill with influenza. Two weeks ago, Robert, three years old, fell and broke a limb.

CONDITIONS FEARFUL SAYS FOREIGN SECRETARY SOLF IN APPEAL TO PRES. WILSON

Messages Picked up Tell of Revolutionary Sailors Calling on Countrymen to Fight Against "Unheard of Presumption" of the Allies; Units are Called to Assemble for Possible Battle.

MOMENTUM OF REVOLT EVERYWHERE SWEEPING AWAY OLD GOVERNMENT

Defeated on the battlefield, deserted by their emperor and subjected to terms tantamount to unconditional surrender, the German people have made an appeal to President Wilson. Conditions described as "fearful" prevail and Dr. W. F. Solff, the foreign secretary, says in his appeal that millions face starvation if the Allies do not take steps to overcome the danger.

Mutinous sailors who are in control of most of the units of Germany's navy may, even at this late date, risk battle against the Allied fleet rather than surrender their vessels under the terms of the armistice. Wireless messages to the various units have been picked up calling upon the sailors to "defend the country against this unheard of presumption." The messages directed that the units assemble in Sassnitz harbor on the east coast of the island of Rugen, off the Prussian coast.

Holland is said to be preparing to intern William Hohenzollern and his son, the former crown prince, as well as other military officers who sought refuge with them by crossing the Dutch frontier. This action may prevent the former emperor from returning to Germany should events take a sudden turn and following the example of Napoleon in 1815.

Allied warships have entered the Dardanelles and British naval forces have occupied Alexanderia.

Field Marshal von Hindenburg, who was reported to have fled to Holland with his royal master, has joined the revolutionary forces. He has asked the soldiers and workmen's council to send delegates at once to main headquarters.

Everywhere in Germany the momentum of the revolution which swept the old regime out of power seems to be increasing. The great Rhenish Westphalian industrial region is in the hands of the Reds. Whitepotsdam and Doberitz have surrendered to the forces which have taken over control in Berlin. There are evidences of friction between the military authorities and the soldiers and workmen's council in many towns in northern Germany, the authority of the latter being questioned. It is reported that civil administration is provisionally organized where there is any danger of a conflict between parties.

"COTTON" MCCORMICK SETTLES ALL DOUBTS AS TO FATE HE MET

Many Killed in His Command but Connellsville Boy Escapes With "Little Gas," He Writes.

In a letter to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William McCormick of this city, William Ray McCormick, better known as "Cotton," removes doubts as to whether he was missing or in a hospital. The letter came today and was dated October 18, three weeks after he was reported missing. It says:

"Well, I am sorry to write you that I am in a hospital, but glad to say I will be all right before long, for I only got a little of Jerry's gas and was lucky I did not get more, or else get killed, for I certainly was in a lot of fighting for 15 days straight and I don't know whether my company has been relieved or not. You cannot imagine the horrible sights I have seen in this war and nobody will ever know unless they go through it."

"There have been a lot of men killed and wounded in my company of late and I have had many shells burst close to me. I don't see how I ever escaped for where we have been fighting is the hardest of the war. When we started the French said we could not drive Jerry out, but when I got gassed we nearly had him out of the forest. When we got him in the open we run him ragged."

"I had a wonderful birthday yesterday. I went over the top that day ahead of the infantry. Another fellow and I captured eight German rifles. It was a machine gun squad and they were glad to get off. In the last six days I was there we took no prisoners."

"Our company captured lots of Jerry's engineer dumps and we certainly put the ammunition to good use. They are all we use anymore."

"When the infantry goes over the top we have to go ahead and cut the barbed wire entanglements and put in bridges. We are in shell fire all the time and any time I spot a Jerry he is a dead bird. The Germans certainly are good with their artillery and machine guns. That is all they use anymore. They have lots of it but never will have enough to stop the Yanks and I don't think he ever will fight long enough to let us get on his soil. He never gets any peace any more."

SCOTSDALE'S CELEBRATION IS POSTPONED

Numerous Cases of Influenza and Pneumonia Cause of Delay.

WAR WORK CAMPAIGN IS ON

While Elsewhere People Were Making Merry Over the Dawn of Peace Committees Apply Themselves to the Task of Raising Town's Quota.

(To the public:—Items for the Scottdale column of The Courier or of interest generally may be left at Ruthersford's News Stand, Pittsburg street. They will receive prompt attention. They must be written and should be carefully prepared, using one side of the paper only, in order to insure correct publication. Special care should be used with proper names. Do not use the telephone in communicating with this agency. Write it. All communications must be signed.)

Special to The Courier.

SCOTSDALE, Nov. 12.—Despite peace celebrations elsewhere yesterday Scottdale did its share in the United War Work campaign. The committees report in the borough building.

Scottdale held no celebration yesterday. On account of the people that are very ill in town it was decided to wait a day or so and then to have a parade.

While all of the patients at the emergency hospital were in fairly good shape yesterday the hospital is still experiencing a shortage in nurses.

"Y" to Open Soon.

The Y. M. C. A. board held a meeting at the rooms of the Scottdale Trust company last evening. The association expects to open the building for the public about Thanksgiving.

EAT LESS AND TAKE SALTS FOR KIDNEYS

Eat Less Meat if Kidneys Feel Like Lead or Bladder Bothers.

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally. Also we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, irritability, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act like clockwork. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless, inexpensive, makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.—Adv.

Window Sill.

A jut in a window, which has no sill, may be made to look attractive by placing a box in it, and by proper covering be transformed into a window-seat. A cover may be placed on the front, and the interior used for storage purposes. In small rooms such a seat is impossible, as it takes up too much space.

Old Sores, Piles, Burns and Scalds Heal Very Quickly

Loughrey Drug Co., Connelville, Pa., and the Broadway Drug Co., Scottdale, sell an ointment called San-Cura that surely does anything it is advertised to do or money back.

Thos. F. McCauley, Connettsville, Pa., cut his finger; blood poison set in; arm swelled terribly; friends despaired; said arm must come off. San-Cura Ointment drew out water and dark pus; agony ceased; arm and hand soon as good as ever.

It quickly draws out poison from sores, fever sores, ulcers, boils, carbuncles, cuts, burns, scalds and bruises.

For itching, bleeding or protruding piles, it has received the highest endorsements, while innumerable cures are recorded where eczema, tetter and salt-rheum were cured in the shortest possible time. San-Cura Ointment is 30c. 50c and $1.20 a jar.

Everybody should use San-Cura Soap. It's antiseptic, prevents germs, keeps the skin clear, soft, and velvety. 25 cents. Thompson Medical Co., Connettsville, Pa.—Adv.

THE PARAMOUNT.

"THE MANX-MAN."—Hall Caine's favorite novel, is being shown today in addition to a selected comedy. "The Manx-Man" is a big gripping picture filled with the stern gripping characters with which Mr. Caine peopled his novel. From the point of photography and setting, it is as near perfect as the most enthusiastic picture fan could wish. The picture was filmed on the Isle of Man, that tiny picturesque island which lies in the center of the Irish sea. In the latter part of the photo-play a rather important part is entrusted to a baby less than a year old. Miss Elizabeth Risdon, the beautiful English actress, who plays the role of Kate in "The Manx-Man," scoured the whole of Man, Ireland, Scotland and England for a suitable baby to fill this significant role. Baby Pete of Miss Risdon calls the youngster, is said to have a radiant smile, which rivals that of Douglas Fairbanks. Tomorrow "A Society Sensation," a Bluebird feature, with Carmel Myers in the leading role, will be seen and on Thursday Montague Love will be featured in an excellent World feature, "To Him That Hath." Friday and Saturday "The Price of a Good Time" will be the attraction.

THE SONNEX.

"THE MARIONETTES."—A splendid production in which Clara Kimball Young, supported by her own company, is being shown today. The picture yesterday attracted an unusually large crowd and was pronounced by those who saw it as one of the best photoplays in which the charming Miss Young has ever appeared. Miss Young is seen as Fernando, a simple country girl, who marries Rogers de Monclara. Her intense love for him is met with cold indifference. Disheartened, she borrows an idea from "The Marionettes," a puppet show, and seeks to win his love by first making him jealous. How she plans her campaign and enlists the aid of numerous customers, hairdressers, manicurists and the like, how her pet scheme seems to have her convert bred and to release its natural sparkle; how her reception attracts scores of real society folks; how she captivates a man who wants her to free with him; and how her husband's jealousy is aroused and transformed into a consuming love—all this action, set in gorgeously beautiful surroundings and acted by a superlative cast, combines to make a superb film drama of heart interest. A good comedy is also included. Tomorrow and Thursday Mildred Harris will be starred in "The Doctor's Woman," a production of exceptional interest.

ORPHEUM THEATRE.

"THE KAISER'S SHADOW."—Featuring Dorothy Dalton, will be shown again today. Tomorrow "The Firefly of France," stars Wallace Reid and Ann Little.

RHEUMATISM LEAVES YOU FOREVER

Deep seated Lipo Acid Deposits are eliminated and the Rheumatic Poisons start to leave the System Within Twenty-four Hours.

Every druggist in this county is authorized to sell to every rheumatic sufferer in this vicinity that if you suffer from Rheumatism, does not stop all agony, reduce swollen joints and do away with even the slightest twinge of rheumatic pain, he will gladly return your money without comment.

Allensol has been tried, and tested for years, and really marvelous results have been accomplished in the most severe cases where the suffering and agony was intense and pitiable and where the patient was helpless.

Allensol relieves at once. Immediately after you start to take it, the good work begins. It serves out the uric acid deposits, dissolves the secretions and drives rheumatic poison out of the body through the kidneys and bowels.

It's marvelous how quickly it acts. Swollen joints often come in two days, and even in cases where the suffering is most painful all traces disappear in a few days. The Connellsville Drug Co. can supply you.—Adv.

FIVE WAYS FOR "FLU" SUFFERERS TO ESCAPE TUBERCULOSIS DANGER

NEW YORK, Nov. 12.—Fearing a rapid rise in the death rate from tuberculosis, as a result of the influenza epidemic, the National Tuberculosis Association has issued a special statement warning the public of the danger. Experience in previous epidemics has clearly indicated the association points out that the death rate from tuberculosis may be expected to be increased by at least 10 per cent within the next two years as a result of the present epidemic, unless proper precautions are taken. Influenza, it is stated, greatly reduces one's physical vitality, and lowers one's resistance to disease. This opens the way for tuberculosis. The surest ways to prevent tuberculosis as a result of influenza are summarized by the association as follows:

1. Stop working and go to bed immediately. Do not resume work until the attack of influenza is all gone.
2. Have nothing to do with patent medicines or drugstore "treatment." Put yourself under a doctor's care at once, and continue under his care until cured.
3. Have your doctor examine you thoroughly to see if any signs of tuberculosis are present. You cannot tell without an expert examination.
4. If free from any trace of tuberculosis, keep so by sufficient rest during convalescence, and careful living then and afterwards.
5. If your "cold" hangs on, or there are other indications of tuberculosis, begin medical treatment without a moment's delay.

HOW RHEUMATISM BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. In a majority of cases rheumatism is an indication that uric acid has pervaded the system. If the irritation of these uric acid crystals is allowed to continue, incurable bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't resort to temporary relief. The sick kidneys must be restored to health by the use of some sterling remedy which will prevent a return of the disease.

Get some GOLD MEDAL HARTMAN'S CAPSULES immediately. They are a standard world-famous medicine in use for over two hundred years. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, back, lumbago, neuralgia, gall stones, gravel and other afflictions of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder and allied organs.

They will attack the poisons at their source, clear out the kidneys and urinary tract and the soothing healing oils and herbs will restore the inflamed tissues and organs to normal health.

GOLD MEDAL is the original Hartman Oil Imported direct from the home laboratories in Haarlem, Holland, by the Genuine Hartman Oil Co., 116 Beekman St., N. Y.

Ask for all others are imitations. Ask for GOLD MEDAL and be sure the name GOLD MEDAL is on the box. Three boxes at all good druggists.—Adv.

MOTHERS, TRY THIS

Croup and Whooping Cough Are Always Dangerous.

Give the child at once a quarter of a teaspoonful of FORKOLA. All good druggists have this. In a minute, the little patient will feel a gentle glow throughout the throat and chest and the hard choking matter will be easily coughed up and expelled.

It's simply wonderful how quickly this pleasant tasting jelly acts, and all mothers whose children suffer from snuffles, croupy coughs and colds, teething, etc., are strongly advised to have a small jar on hand for emergency. It will save you many anxious moments. FORKOLA never fails, and every druggist in the country guarantees it on the money back if dissatisfied plan, so try it at our expense. Any druggist can supply you.—Adv.

RESTORING COAL MINES OF FRANCE AND BELGIUM A BIG ENGINEERING JOB

A Rare Opportunity for Experts to Show What They Can Do in Doing Damage Wrought by Germans.
Lille, which the Allies had hopes of gaining nearly two years ago, was entered by the British last week. In the neighborhood is the great Valenciennes coal field of France, a large tonnage producer although the coal is not of very good quality and is rather unsuited to metallurgical use, particularly to cokeling. The town of the same name, 25 miles southeast of Lille (Lille on many maps) remained in German hands; the battle line in that neighborhood running approximately north and south. Just across the Franco-Belgian border, 25 or 30 miles east of Valenciennes, lies Charleroi, the center of the important coal district of Belgium. Paris dispatches have had it that General Ludendorff would be quite unable to make a stand short of a line from Antwerp through Namur to Metz. That would leave both the Valenciennes coal field of France and the Charleroi coal field of Belgium in full possession of the Allies.

Coal has been extremely scarce in France, the supply being barely sufficient for munition making and operation of the railroads, and the market price has been fabulous. For a long time there have been reports that the Germans had flooded the Valenciennes mines and damaged the machinery so that they counted on more than a year being required for the resumption of production in case the territory was gained by the Allies. As to the Charleroi mines, so long safely held by the Germans, there is no information.

A rare opportunity is afforded mining engineers to show what they can do in restoring coal production in these two important districts, says the American Metal Market. British engineers have had much experience with water in British coal mines, and American engineers with water in Pennsylvania anthracite mines, the copper mines and in some other classes of mining operations.

Fur Garments, Eccentric and Pretty

Just as the perplexed reporter of fashions is about to begin to describe some fetching new fur garment as a cape, she discovers that it has an indisputable claim to be called a scarf. And when she has decided that it belongs to the straightforward, upright and downright scarf family, she finds it consorting with a belt, something scarfs and capes have heretofore not done. Eccentric and interesting—these are the terms that belong to the small fur garments that have lent a willing ear to tales of alluring romance this season. They look like so many things we finally have to call them by the most indefinite of terms—merely "garments"—they are that anyway.

Here is one of them which is a cape so far as the back and shoulders are concerned, a scarf so far as the front goes, and a jacket, if we take the belt's word for it. It is made of Hudson seal and has a collar of Siberian squirrel. And this is another characteristic of fur garments this season. Hardly one of them but has two kinds of fur in its make-up.

The little fur wrap shown in the illustration, worn with a heavy suit, is warm enough for average winter weather and an ideal affair for autumn and early winter. Women wear these small garments with wonderful grace and it is no wonder that furs have carried over into the summer months. It is for style—and they have it—that they are so much loved. This little wrap has pockets in the ends at the front. A mink to wear with it in cold weather is of seal skin, like it, but has no squirrel trimming.

In spite of the liking for old wraps, nothing equals in popularity scarf and mink sets. There is a great variety in them and in capes with minks to match, and one need never question their good style. Handsome furs do not need to follow fashion's whims—they are too rich for that.

Uneven Fringe.
Fringe is still used with distinction. This is a style that might easily have been run to the ground, but because of the cleverness of the designers it is still a good style and excellent results are still obtained with fringe of many sorts. Perhaps a mark of the newer usage of fringe is this: Unevenness. Fringe on the edges of panels is so put on that it hangs very often in irregular or uneven lines. Some of the new frocks and blouses have fringed sleeves, with uneven edges. Sometimes, even, the fabric of the frock itself is fringed out to give the right effect.

Helping at Home

YESTERDAY afternoon as I walked into Mrs. Shepherd's home just across the street, I heard her say over the telephone: "That's all I need today, thank you."

A few minutes later, she exclaimed, "There! I've forgotten the coffee. I must telephone at once."

I wondered, as she made a second call, which was the more important—the war or her forgotten coffee? If she had only made a list and checked off each article, I know she could have saved a telephone message. And every telephone call saved releases the telephone equipment and the time of the operator for serving the needs of the war program.

The Telephone Company is looking to women in the home to help, and it is just by avoiding "extra" telephone calls that women can do their part.

PETEY DINK—That's Going Altogether Too Far

By C. A. VOIGHT

All Creeds Unite in $170,500,000 War Work Campaign To Maintain Morale and Put Allies Over the Rhine

Leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish Clergymen Appeal to America to Support Men in Uniform by Aiding Seven Big War Work Organizations Which are Making Drive for $170,500,000 to Enable Them to Continue Varied Activities.

AFTER responding unanimously to General Pershing's call for the American clergy to keep the spirit of Americans "white hot with patriotism," leading Protestant, Catholic and Jewish clergymen have joined their voices in urging united support of the fighters at the front in camp and on the seas, through the United War Work Campaign, launched by the Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., National Catholic War Council with K. of C., War Camp Community Service, Jewish Welfare Board, American Library Association and Salvation Army, to raise $170,500,000 for continued service work.

All creeds are represented in the identical plea for our fighters made by Bishops Peter J. Muldoon and William T. Russell, of the Catholic hierarchy, Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson and Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, noted Protestant clergymen, and Dr. Cyrus Adler, acting president of the Jewish Theological Seminary of America, and Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, of the Free Synagogue, New York.

Churches Will Respond

Rev. Dr. Robert E. Speer, Chairman of the War-Time Commission of the Federal Council of the Churches of Christ in America, gives the following assurance that the churches will do that part to aid the United War Work Campaign.

"The call of the President and the loyalty which all good citizens owe to it, the needs of the men in the army and navy and the desire of the people at home to do everything in their power to help them, and the duty of unity in the great task undertaken by the nation in the war, call for the hearty support of the United War Work Campaign by all the forces of the country. The churches will be foremost to respond to this call."

Welcomed by Catholics

Bishop Peter J. Muldoon, Chairman of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says: "The plan of one common drive for war work funds for all the varied war activities is heartily welcomed by the National Catholic will loyally comply with President Wilson's request for combined service.

Plea for Our Fighters Made by Bishop Muldoon and Bishop Russell, Rev. Dr. Speer, Rev. Dr. Stevenson, Rabbi Wise and Dr. Adler, Who Call Upon Nation to Back Up President Wilson—'Army and Church Under One Banner—That of Liberating Service.'

"Bigger to make every possible provision for strengthening the morale of the soldiers in the Allied armies, without regard to race or creed, so that victory may be sure, swift and complete, the churches may be depended upon to contribute their share and more than their share towards the promotion of the soldiers' essential welfare—physical, intellectual, moral and religious."

To Work Together

Bishop William T. Russell, one of the four members of the Administrative Committee of the National Catholic War Council, says:

"The harmonious action in support of the Government for recreation work for our soldiers, which the United War Work Campaign symbolizes, deserves and has ever received our heartiest co-operation. It offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

"The National Catholic War Council, which includes every variety of war work done by Catholics, was organized that it might offer the entire services of the Catholic body in co-operation with all other citizens to the support of the Government in the winning of the war. In this common drive for war funds we will follow the lead of the Government with unqualified approval and enthusiasm."

Links in Moral Chain

Dr. Cyrus Adler, Vice-Chairman of the Jewish Welfare Board, says: "The men in our armies and on our ships stand together as a compact whole, and the least we at home can do is to follow their example. The seven organizations in the United War Work Campaign are of equal importance to the entire military forces, just as they are essential to the constituents of their particular service. They are links in the moral chain to support our soldiers' power, now on the high roads of victory, with the joint purpose of averting the moral and debasing influences which war has exercised on our enemies' armies."

"The Jewish people of America have yet another opportunity, which I know they will gladly seize, to demonstrate again with their fellow citizens of all other religions."

War Council. It enables us all to stand on the common platform of American citizenship and brings out clearly that the aim of all these organizations is one and the same—to aid the men in the service. Questions of religious differences have no place in such a service."

"The United War Work Campaign offers an unequalled opportunity for all American citizens to work together in the common cause now so urgent and so dear to us."

Under One Banner

Dr. Stephen S. Wise, the "fighting rabbi" of the Free Synagogue, New York City, says:

"The American soldier represents life's highest aims and noblest purposes—to establish justice between nations, great and small, and to end the reign of the sword. His cause is holy; therefore the Church of God, Jewish and Christian alike, may bless him and must serve him. The Army and the Churches of America are under one banner—that of liberating service."

Rev. Dr. J. Ross Stevenson, President of Princeton Theological Seminary, formerly Moderator of the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church, and pastor of the Fifth Avenue Presbyterian Church, says:

"The action of the War-Time Commission of Churches approving the United War Work Campaign and urging generous support upon the constituent bodies, through their several churches, is a forecast of the united and whole-hearted response that may be confidently expected. The churches' response is expected. The churches' response is expected."

THE NEW DRESS

By JULIA A. ROBINSON.

(Copyright, 1918, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.)

"Mamma, I've got to have a new dress to wear to the lawn party next week," announced Maude, looking up from the story she was reading. "I must have a white one. I saw a beauty at J's yesterday—gorgeous crepe, with the loveliest lace! I wish you'd buy it for me."

Her mother hesitated. "Don't you think you could get along with your last year's dress, dear?"

"Oh, mamma," exclaimed Maude, "I've worn that everywhere I've been this summer. I'm tired of it; besides, it's all worn at the sleeves. I couldn't wear that, and you wouldn't have the either."

"But everything costs so much now," ejaculated her mother. "Couldn't you manage some way?"

"I don't know how I could get along without a dress, really, mamma," returned Maude. "You'd want me to look as well as the other girls, wouldn't you? Maude's going to have a new one, and I'm sure Helen Bates will. You don't want me to look shabby."

"How much would the new dress cost?" asked Mrs. Pope, weakening. "Forty dollars—but it's a beauty! It's really worth it."

The mother sighed. That seemed such a great price to pay for one dress, when everything was so dear, and money was needed to help the soldiers; but still, she did not like to disappoint Maude.

Just then Mr. Pope came in, puffing from the heat, but smiling and good-natured. He was generally in good humor.

"Dad!" exclaimed Maude, "mamma's been objecting to my having a new dress for the lawn party. My old one is quite shabby. You'd want me to have a new one, wouldn't you, dad? You old dear!" She flung her arms about her father's neck. She knew he never could deny her anything when she coaxed.

"Well, I guess you can raise the money, girlie! but don't choke me," he laughed. "We might as well let her have it if she wants it," he added, turning to his wife.

"Oh, you darling!" cried Maude, hugging him. "I'm so happy! I'm going right over to tell Helen Bates about it. She'll have something beautiful to wear. I know; but I guess she'll be just as pretty as I am. You'll be proud of me in my new dress, dad."

Maude, all smiles, ran over to tell the good news to her friend. She found Helen waiting on a pile of dotted muslin. "What are you doing, Helen?" she asked.

"I'm making myself a new dress for the lawn party," beamed Helen, holding it up to view. "See! It's nearly done. I made it all myself, and it cost just $8.75. Isn't it a dear?"

Maude looked at the dress, amazed. It was a pretty dress, but so plain, not a particle of lace, just tiny ruffles. It was not like the dresses Helen usually wore. "Yes, it's very pretty," she faltered.

She felt almost ashamed to tell Helen what her dress was going to cost. If Helen, one of the richest girls in town, could wear a dress costing $8.75, why should she pay $40 for one? Perhaps mother was right, after all.

"It's really pretty," repeated Maude, "but—think—you'd have something really fine, as you always do. Papa's going to buy me one. It's swell!" she continued, remembering the coveted dress. "You usually have something so much more elaborate than this."

"Yes," smiled Helen, "but I'm beginning to think I've been quite foolish to spend so much on dress, especially now, when so much is needed for the war. We've been talking it over, mamma and I. We both wanted to give all we could to the Red Cross, and I decided if I bought the muslin and made the dress myself, I should have almost the entire cost of the dress to give away—and look just as well, too. You see, they need so much for the soldiers 'over there,' mamma and I are saving all we can to help."

This was a new idea to Maude, and she began to think.

"I suppose I could get along with a cheaper dress," she admitted. "Papa would give me the money, and I could save a part of it."

"Do!" cried Helen enthusiastically. "Couldn't you make it yourself, and save more? I'll help you."

"Why, I never made a dress in my life," confessed Maude. "I shouldn't know how."

"It's quite easy, after you once begin," encouraged Helen. "I'll show you how to do it. You see, I've got my hand in," she laughed. "Come! Let's go downtown and buy the goods and begin right off."

For the next week Maude was very busy, and very happy—happier than ever before in her life, for she was doing something to help others. She let her mother into the secret, but did not tell her father till she appeared before him on the day of the party in a dainty white lawn, very plain and simple, with tiny stitched ruffles.

"Don't I look sweet in my new dress, dad?" she chirped.

"Yes, you're always charming," he flattered, looking at the dress.

She laughed. "You don't know the difference between this and a forty-dollar dress, daddy, dear! But the best of it is," she told him, with sparkling eyes, "I've got the new dress and thirty-four dollars besides to give to the Red Cross."

NOW NEW WOMAN DUE TO TANLAC REMEDY LAUDED

Mrs. Hagarly Surprised Tanlac Man By Remarkable Restoration to Complete Health.

"Don't you know me, Mr. Kohlsin?" "I certainly do not. I never saw you before."

"Don't you remember the woman, that had to be half-carried into Turner's Drug Store six weeks ago, when you first came to Altoona, and bought a bottle of Tanlac?"

"Yes, I remember that incident."

"Well, I am that woman, Mrs. Hagarly. Then I was so sick from nervousness and sick stomach, that I could not walk a square without being assisted. Now I am strong and vigorous and in perfect health, after only taking three bottles of Tanlac. The doctors had said that I was a nervous wreck and never would be well again. Look at me now. I do not look as if I had ever been sick a day, so my friends and relatives say. I'll say they are telling the truth, because I am so happy over my recovery."

So said Mrs. H. K. Hagarly of Ballwood, near Altoona, Pa., to Mr. Kohlsin, the Tanlac Man, at the Turner Drug Company's Store, 1116 Eleventh Avenue, Altoona.

Mr. Kohlsin stated that when Mrs. Hagarly came to the Turner Store and bought a bottle of Tanlac, she was the sickest woman he had ever seen. Now she is the very picture of health.

Tanlac is now sold in Connelville exclusively by Connelville Drug Co., Delany's Pharmacy and F. H. Harmon, where the premier preparation can be had.—ADV.

It's Acid-Stomach Sapping Your Strength

It is impossible for anyone with an acid-stomach to be well and strong. Because acid-stomach, sour stomach as most people call it—a condition that doctors name hyperacidity—is due to excess acid which is absolutely harmful. Every one knows acid-stomach ruins the teeth and gums and although you cannot taste this acid still it is strong enough to eat away the harder-than-bone enamel on the teeth, and cause them to decay.

What then, must be the action of too much acid upon the delicate organization of the stomach? Surely you must realize that such a condition, if not corrected, will weaken and undermine one's health. But have you really any idea of the great number of ailments that are directly traceable to acid-stomach? Few people have. When they are bilious, or have severe headache, or an attack of indigestion, or rheumatism, lumbago or sciatica; or when they begin to feel run down and are nervous and mentally depressed; or have dizzy spells, vertigo and pains around the heart—little do they think it may have its origin in an acid-stomach.

And then there are thousands—yes, millions—of people who, without having any well defined ailment, are always complaining. They can't say exactly what is the matter with them. All they can tell you is that they "don't feel right," are "all in, tired, sickly". And just to look at them you know they are telling the truth.

How can they "feel right" when the chances are they are always secreting excess acid that is slowly but surely, day by day, making digestion more and more difficult, causing food to sour and ferment in the intestinal tract, filling their systems with poisons? For that is exactly what excess acid—hyperacidity—does. It prevents one from getting full strength out of his food.

Is it any wonder then, that there are so many people who, while not downright sick, show plainly in face, figure and action that they are anything but well? They are dependent, weak, listless, unattractive and pain in practically every part of the body. Lacking in physical energy and mental vigor. Little or no inclination to be up and doing. Just dragging out a weary existence.

That is what acid-stomach does to millions of people in every walk of life. There is only one way to prevent and correct those conditions—that is get rid of the excess acid.

A wonderful modern remedy now makes it possible to rid the stomach of its excess acid without the slightest discomfort. It is called EATONIC—a compound in tablet form. EATONIC Tablets are good to eat—they taste like candy. Eat one or two of these tablets after each meal and you will notice a wonderful difference—my, what a difference! It helps you get full strength out of every mouthful you eat—and that is what you must have to be well and strong—full strength from your food.

Livelihood.

The world owes you a living, and by methods clean and right. Sometimes by work it may be won: Sometimes you've got to fight.

Experimenting. "Why did you take these fish from the aquarium?" "Because I was afraid the turtle might eat them."

"Why, there's no turtle in there." "Well, Johnny put his boat in the aquarium and papa said it turned turtle."

Paradoxical Enterprises. "There are some queer ways about building operations." "How do you mean?"

"When a man wants to expand his building for business reasons, he calls in a contractor."

An Authority. "Does that man know anything about the industrial conditions?"

"I should say he does. He knows so much he can make a living lecturing of them instead of doing any regular work himself."

THE P. R. R. WAS RESPONSIBLE FOR THE BOX CAR ORDER

Not the Fuel Administration, as the Team Trackers Have Alleged.

RESTRICTION'S REMOVAL

Was Sought by Regional Representatives; Informed That Shortage in Supply Was Cause of Order Having Been Issued; Is Only Temporary.

The complaints of the team track loaders that the order depriving them of the use of box cars was the fault of the Fuel Administration appears to have been unfounded, the action having been taken by the Pennsylvania railroad because of a shortage in this class of equipment. Instead of having been responsible for the order, the regional representatives of the administration have been making every possible effort to have it revoked and otherwise to secure for the team trackers every facility needed to market their product.

Replying to the allegations that the Fuel Administration has investigated the order cutting off box cars, W. L. Byers, assistant district representative, has made the following statement:

"From all the information we have gathered, it is absolutely untrue to say that the Fuel Administration is to blame for the discontinuance of box cars for team track loaders. When the restriction was placed, we called the railroad company and asked why it was done. They informed us that they were short of box cars and could not supply nearly all loaders, but had a fairly good supply of open tops, and just as they have done several times previously, placed these restrictions which they assured us would be only temporary.

"I have made one or two trips to Washington and have had various telephone conversations with officials there in an endeavor to have the hauling charge of 75 cents applied also to open top equipment, but without success.

"We of the local Fuel Administration office have been continuously abused by some of the team track loaders in the district for conditions over which we have no control and are blamed with about everything that happens. We can truthfully say that, although the team track coal tonnage loaded when they all got cars in the region, did not amount to more than one per cent of the coal produced in the region, and that this class of loaders have caused us eighty per cent of all our trouble in quality and shipment."

TELLS DYSEPTICS WHAT TO EAT

Avoid Indigestion, Sour Acid Stomach, Heartburn, Gas on Stomach, Etc.

Indigestion and practically all forms of stomach trouble may be medical authorities are due nine times out of ten to an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach. Chronic "acid stomach" is exceedingly dangerous and sufferers should do either one of two things.

Either they can go on a limited and often disagreeable diet, avoiding foods that disagree with them, that irritate the stomach and lead to excess acid secretion or they can eat as they please in reason and make it a practice to counteract the effect of the harmful acid and prevent the formation of gas, sourness or premature fermentation by the use of a little Bismarck Magnesia at their meals.

There is probably no better, safer or more reliable stomach antacid than Bismarck Magnesia and it is widely used for this purpose. It has no direct action on the stomach and is not a laxative. But a teaspoonful of the powder or a couple of five grain tablets taken in a little water with the food will neutralize the excess acidity which may be present and prevent its further formation. This removes the whole cause of the trouble and the meal digests naturally and healthfully without need of peptic pills or artificial digestants.

Get a few ounces of Bismarck Magnesia from any reliable druggist. Ask for either powder or tablets. It never comes as a liquid, milk or citrate and in the Bismarck form is not a laxative. Try this plan and eat what you want at your next meal and see if this isn't the best advice you ever had on what to eat.—Adv.

WALTER SLIGER HAD VERY CLOSE CALL IN ST. MIHIEL DRIVE

Shower of High Explosive Shells Drops Close by; Concussion Lifts Boys From Ground.

Writing to his mother, Mrs. Orpha J. Sliger, under date of October 2, Corporal Walter Sliger says:

"Just a few lines to let you know that things are just going along nicely over here now. We just heard news yesterday that Bulgaria had signed the peace treaty and that the Turks are whipped. Now the next thing to do is to get Austria-Hungary and I think the war will be finished.

"Just received some papers this morning and was glad to get them because they are almost as good as letters; lots of news in them. I guess you get awfully lonesome now that we are all gone, but don't worry, mother, for we shall all be back soon. Most of the fellows here seem to think the war will be over by Christmas.

"Did you hear about the St. Mihiel salient. We were partly in that. All the time our company was on the lines we had patrol out in No Man's Land every night and we certainly had Jerry guessing. He knew that an attack was coming but could not figure out just where it was going to begin. I guess he knows now, all right. The trouble was the Americans did not stop at straightening out the salient, but are still going. We had some pretty close calls. This is one of them: We were driven from our trenches by gas and were walking along a road behind the lines when we heard some big shells come whistling through the air. We all fell flat and they actually dropped all around us. So close, in fact, to some of the fellows, that the concussion lifted them from the ground. None of us was hit, though, thank goodness."
